Comment: For story of Malaxa
incidents, see GR-263 of 23
February 1945.

1. In the fracas between the RND and other workers at the Malaxa Tube Factory on 20 February, subsource escaped being arrested by the Malaxa Factory Committee, thanks to the protection of the Russian Commission working at the tube factory. They not only protected him but gave him transportation out of the area in a Russian car.
2. Subsource called on General Radeson on 21 February to inform him of the incidents. General Radeson told subsource that he did not have the slightest intention to resign and added:

"Arm yourselves; help me! I have only 3000 armed men in Bucharest and I need the citizens' help. The fate of the country will be decided within the next three or four days."

3. Subsource said that he was ready to fight against anarchy and chaos and against the people who tried to terrorize the whole population. He expressed the opinion that civil war was in the air and that the only way out was through hard fighting.
